

College of Arts and Sciences, University of Tokyo
Asian Community in terms of the movement of persons
Duration: From October 2015 to March 2016

Part 1. Historical context for persons' movement in Asia

- 2015
- #01 Introduction of the course
(03 October) Masaru Tonomura and Mariko Tanigaki (associate professors, Graduate School of Arts & Sciences, University of Tokyo)
- #02 Japan and Far East Russia
(10 October) Eisuke Kaminaga (associate professor, Niigata Univ. of International & Information Studies)
- #03 Those who pulled out of "Karafuto" and those who remained
(17 October) Taishou Nakayama (researcher, Slavic-Eurasian Research Center, Hokkaido Univ.)
- #04 Formation of the society of Korean residents in Japan
(24 October) Masaru Tonomura (associate professor, Graduate School of Arts & Sciences, University of Tokyo)
- #05 Incoherence of colonial administration and the issue of Koreans abroad
(31 October) Takashi Mitsui (associate professor, Graduate School of Arts & Sciences, University of Tokyo)
- #06 Formation of the society of Jeju residents in Japan and their current situation
(07 November) 李昌益 (professor, Faculty of Humanities, Cheju National University)
- #07 Formation of the society of Korean residents in Manchuria & their current situation
(14 November) 李海燕 (associate professor, Faculty of Technology, Tokyo University of Science)

Part 2. Current situation of persons' movement in Asia

- #08 International movement of Korean people
(21 November) 羅京洙 (assistant professor, Dept. of Intercultural Communication, Gakushuin Women's College)
- #09 Formation of the society of Chinese residents in the Ryukyu: people's international movement around Okinawa
(28 November) Shohei Yao (researcher, Organization for Asian Studies, Waseda University)
- #10 Migrating families
(05 December) Mariko Tanigaki (associate professor, Graduate School of Arts & Sciences, University of Tokyo)
- #11 Migrating entrepreneurs
(12 December) 黃紹倫 (professor emeritus, University of Hong Kong)

#12 Hong Kong as a hub point for emigration to the New World over the Pacific Ocean
(19 December) 冼玉儀 (associate professor, University of Hong Kong)

2016

#13 International nature of the Hong Kong film
(11 January) Tomohiro Michiue (concurrent lecturer, University of Tokyo)

Part 3: Possibility of the formation of Asian Community in consideration of people's mobility

#14 Discussion regarding the lectures and reports of the course
(18 January) Masaru Tonomura and Mariko Tanigaki (associate professors, Graduate School of Arts & Sciences, University of Tokyo)

#15 Concluding lecture / discussion
(25 January) with Yoji Sato (director, One Asia Foundation)

*Note* Lectures are subject to change according to lecturers' convenience.