

Tongji University
Course on “East Asian Community” (first semester, 2012)

- Lecture 1 (February 29) Why we need Asian Community now — going back to its starting point ----- 鄭俊坤
(chief researcher, One Asia Foundation)
- Lecture 2 (March 7) Toward the formation of East Asian Community (from Japanese standpoint) ----- 樊勇明
- Lecture 3 (March 14) Toward the formation of East Asian Community (from Korean standpoint) ----- 石源華
- Lecture 4 (March 21) Toward the formation of East Asian Community (from Chinese standpoint) ----- 胡令遠
- Lecture 5 (March 28) The role of Chinese and Japanese cultures in the formation of East Asian Community ----- 徐靜波
- Lecture 6 (April 4) The role of Korean culture in the formation of East Asian Community ----- 崔志鷹
- Lecture 7 (April 11) The role of popular-level exchanges in the formation of East Asian Community ----- 蔡建國
- Lecture 8 (April 18) Environmental issues and international cooperation in East Asia (with a focus on water resources)----- 李建華
- Lecture 9 (April 25) Welfare problems and international cooperation in East Asia (with a focus on demography) ----- 馬利中
- Lecture 10 (May 2) Urban problems and international cooperation in East Asia (with a focus on urban culture)----- 李斌
- Lecture 11 (May 9) Preservation of urban cultural assets in East Asia ----- 張松
- Lecture 12 (May 16) To carry on traditional culture of East Asia (with a focus on tea culture) ----- 陸留弟
- Lecture 13 (May 23) Literature in East Asia (with a focus on modern Japanese literature) ----- 劉曉芳

- Lecture 14 (May 30) Languages in East Asia (with a focus on Japanese language teaching)
----- 厩志春
- Lecture 15 (June 6) Popular performing arts in East Asia (with a focus on festivals in Japan, Korea and China) ----- 蔡敦達
- Lecture 16 (June 13) Dreams and visions for East Asian Community ----- Yoji Sato, director of One Asia Foundation
- Lecture 17 (June 20) Term-end examination

Note Lectures are subject to change according to lecturers' convenience.