

Hanshin University
Cross-border Culture Course—Tasks of Asian Community

Duration: From March to June, 2014

- #01 Introduction: why is Asian Community required now?
李起豪 (professor, Faculty of Liberal Arts, Hanshin University)
- #02 Asian Community and space for peace
Hidetoshi Taga (professor, Faculty of Social Sciences, Waseda University)
- #03 Asia , democratization and peace
Yukio Sato (professor, Faculty of Human Development, University of Toyama)
- #04 North Korea and East Asia
具甲祐 (professor, University of North Korean Studies)
- #05 America's position in Asia
李惠正 (professor, Chung-ang University)
- #06 The rise of China and change in Asian space
李熙玉 (professor, Sungkyunkwan University)
- #07 Argument for independence of Okinawa and East Asian Community
Yasukatsu Matsushima (professor, Faculty of Economics, Ryukoku University)
- #08 Overcoming the divided situation and peace of East Asia
李南周 (professor, Faculty of Chinese Studies, Sungkonghoe University)
- #09 East Asian mingling zone and co-existence with memory (1)
Kazunori Hayanagi (professor, Faculty of Environmental Studies, Nagasaki University)
- #10 East Asian mingling zone and co-existence with memory (2)
Ken Masuda (associate professor, Faculty of Environmental Studies, Nagasaki Univ.)
- #11 Asian Economic Community and a new model of economic cooperation
李日荣 (professor, Faculty of Liberal Arts, Hanshin University)
- #12 Asian cross-border response to the issue of climate change
李相憲 (professor, Faculty of Liberal Arts, Hanshin University)
- #13 Asian Community and Japanese regionalism
Yuji Morikawa (assistant professor, Center for Far Eastern Studies, Univ. of Toyama)
- #14 The tasks of Asian civil society
Seiichi Ogawa (lecturer, Faculty of Law and Economics, Chiba University)
- #15 Peace process of Korean Peninsula and a community house for Asian people
金東進/李起豪 (professor/researcher, Hanshin University)
- #16 The future of Asian Community
Yoji Sato (director, One Asia Foundation)

Note Lectures are subject to change according to lecturers' convenience.