

Ryukoku University

Course on Asian Community

Duration: From September 2017 to January 2018

2016

- #01 Activities to instill new life into Japanese society which pretends to be a “homogeneous community”
(23 September) Sooim Lee (professor, Cross-Cultural Communication, Ryukoku University)
- #02 Issues regarding schools for foreigners, including extensive revision of the immigration law, free tuition fees at public high schools, and others
(30 September) Hiroshi Tanaka (guest researcher, prof. emeritus, Japan-Asia Relations, Hitotsubashi Univ.)
- #03 Problems of wartime forced transportation, and of enslaved prostitute of Chinese and Korean people
(07 October) Etsuro Totsuka (guest researcher, former professor, Human Right Law, Ryukoku Univ.)
- #04 To wedge open the views of some Japanese and Western people who consider An Jung-geun as a terrorist
(14 October) Eiji Makino (professor, Philosophy and Ethics, Hosei University)
- #05 To boost exchanges between Japan and neighboring Asian nations, and social enlightenment with a focus on “Minsai-gaku”
(21 October) Hisashi Nakamura (guest researcher, prof. emeritus, Minsai-gaku, Ryukoku University)
- #06 Development of research from “various languages” to “different cultures”
(28 October) Shinji Nakagawa (professor, Faculty of Economics, Kansai Gakuin University)
- #07 Japan’s annexation of the Korean Peninsula as a future (not the past) issue
(04 November) 李泰鎮 (professor, Korean History, Seoul National University)
- #08 An Jung-geun’s greatness who contributed to the peace in the world
(11 November) Atsuchi Hirata (guest researcher, professor emeritus, Japanese History, Ryukoku Univ.)
- #9 As a “bridge” connecting the youth of Japan, S. Korea, N. Korea and Aynu
(18 November) Yoshihiko Tonohira (chief priest, Ichijo-ji of True Pure Land Buddhism)
- #10 Management — how to control and organize
(25 November) Naotoshi Shigemoto (professor, Faculty of Business Administration, Ryukoku Univ.)
- #11 Study of Japanese history not a national viewpoint but in the light of East Asian international relations
(02 December) Makoto Katsumura (professor, College of Policy Science, Ritsumeikan University)
- #12 Odious aspects of “Promotion of Women in Workplace” in Japan
(09 December) Tessa Morris – Suzuki (professor, Modern Japanese Political History, Australian National University)

#13 Thought of An Jung-geun — not as that of a terrorist
(16 December) 趙東成 (director, Memorial Hall of An Jung-geun)

2017

#14 Significance of Asian Community and the mission of One Asia Foundation
(13 January) Yoji Sato (director, One Asia Foundation)

#15 Why we need One Asia now
(20 January) Joonkon Chung (chief researcher, One Asia Foundation)

*Note* Lectures are subject to change according to lecturers' convenience.